

UNIQUE CONCEPT

Have you ever heard of Kazerne? In our monumental military barracks and adjacent industrial warehouse - one of the most beautiful historical locations in Eindhoven – you'll find a bar, a 100 couverts restaurant, a multifunctional meeting room and a design shop that are opened daily. Here, people eat, drink and spend their time surrounded by design of top talents.

When the restoration of the heritage is completed in January 2019, eight exclusive hotel suites, a 30 couverts fine-dining restaurant, a members club and a number of smaller meeting and event spaces will be added.

The atmosphere is cosmopolitan with a raw artistic edge. A unique and ambitious concept.

MAÎTRE (M/F)

For the 30 pax fine-dining restaurant that is scheduled to open at the beginning of next year under the guidance of the ambitious chef Rasmus Olander, we are looking for a maître (mf).

Are you an experienced maître who is able to excite guests on a culinary level? Can you work quickly, accurately and sales-oriented and at the same time engage with guests? Do you have an affinity with Northern European cuisine and the ambition to score the highest points? Then we are looking for you! Especially if you are an enthusiastic, flexible personality who loves a dynamic work environment.

Our new supervising colleague:

- is dynamic, socially skilled, trendsetting, artistic and able to keep an overview;
- is a host / hostess by nature;
- has extensive food & beverage knowledge, fitting to an ambitious contemporary fine-dining restaurant;
- has all standard qualifications/function requirements and experience in the higher segment;
- has an enterprising, cost-conscious attitude;
- speaks fluent English, several languages are an advantage;
- is more than happy to contribute to a special experience for our guests.

Within the growing concept of Kazerne, Home of Design, you will be responsible for the service and beverages department of the yet to be opened fine-dining restaurant. You will recruit and coach your team, teach them the intricacies of the trade and cooperate closely with the chef and his team, the manager and the reservations department. Within the management team you think along about the operational and strategic planning.

A hospitable attitude, an open mind, flexibility, sales skills and at least three years of relevant experience are a must. People with a personal interest in culture and design have an advantage.

Of course, we offer a suitable salary and excellent benefits, and career opportunities for this full-time top job.
